

MITL/HR/POLICY/2025/01

Version:1.1 (Modified on 30-June-2025)

Attendance Policy

Policy Title: Employee Attendance and Working Hours Policy

Policy Owner: HR Team

1. Purpose

This policy aims to ensure punctuality, regular attendance, and adherence to standard working hours by all employees.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full-time and part-time employees of MITL.

3. Working Hours

- Period Applicability: Payroll cycle (from 26th of one month to 25th of next month).
- Entry time is kept flexible from 8 AM-10.30 AM.
- A monthly average of 9 hours 15 minutes per working day is mandatory.
- Half Days: 4.5 working hours are mandatory to avail half day leave.
- The standard working week is 5 days, from Monday to Friday.
- Tracking and Reporting: Employees must accurately record their working hours using the HRIS1 system.
- It is advised to regularise the attendance in HRIS1 on a weekly basis.

4. Disciplinary Actions for Non-Compliance:

- Late Arrival Penalties:
 - A single late punch after 10:30 AM will be considered as 1 instance.
 - A half-day leave will be deducted after 4th instance of late coming and subsequent instances in a month.
 - The system will prioritize Casual Leave (CL) first, followed by Privilege Leave (PL) for leave adjustments.
 - If there is no balance of CL or PL, LWP will be adjusted.
- Continued non-compliance to this policy may result in further disciplinary actions, such as written warning, show cause notice, leave/ salary deductions and performance evaluations.

5. Exceptions and Approvals

Exceptions to this policy may be granted in special circumstances, such as work commitment outside the regular working hours, medical/ personal emergencies, with prior approval from the HR Team and Unit Head.

6. Compliance and Monitoring

- The HR department will regularly monitor attendance records to ensure compliance with this policy.
- Employees are encouraged to discuss any concerns or issues related to this policy with their supervisor or the HR department.

7. Review and Revision

This policy will be reviewed annually and revised if necessary to ensure effectiveness and relevance.